The funeral of Mrs. Henry Gardner of Dufur, aged about 45 years, took place there Friday of last week. Sherman county is the first county in Eastern Oregon to send in its full quota of state tax for the year 1890. H. Herbring, the dry goods man, today removed his stock of goods into a store in the French block opposite.

Dr. Logan went out Friday morning to Shearer's Bridge to visit one of the Smith brothers who, we regret to hear,

George Herbert has rented the Hood River hotel from its owner Robert Rand. and will take charge beginning of next month. The CHRONICLE wishes him

Not many years ago the Portland chamber of commerce passed a solemn olution that the government appro-The whirligig of time brings many a Stock Company sold a band the other red flannel drawers on a bean-pole! day for $3.00 a head. These are good prices and indicate prosperous times for Long Ward today presented the editor shillaly which he says he imported for this purpose direct from the ould dart. Bird. Mr. Ward has our profoundest thanks. Transgressors of all kinds will therefore beware. This particular shillaly is a dangerous thing to monkey with.

Mr. G. J. Farley returned from Porttne contract for the steamer is let to Joseph Pacquett, the machinery to be furnished by the Willamette Iron works. The total cost of the boat without furniture is $25,000. She will be built in The Dalles and is contracted to be finished in one hundred days.

Saturday an egg which he vows was layed | Carder, Miss Clara | Clark, James W by a hen belonging to the "bald-headed" | Carl, Dr A W Cochin variety, the property of C. W. Dyer, George Dietzel. It measures 73/4 by 93/4 inches. The foreman of the CHRONICLE says it McCown, A C looks like the "lay of the last minstrel." Plaster, George Vestig & Multur goose egg. Charley Bayard says it is a hen's egg. The horse editor thinks it is an egg and knows that the measurements given above are eggs-actly correct. If "bald-headed" rooster in Oregon can beat it let him now crow.

A meeting of the directors of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co., was held in this city Saturday. The committee which was charged with the done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you wish to know the quickest way to cure a sever cold? We will tell placed on cars on the jetty and literally run "out to the sea" on a railroad. The encampment meets at Salem next year, and Salem will have to hustle to equal done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to, as nature in her done if you choose to her done if you choos of Portland, for $25,000, to be finished on

The Dalles delegation to the Portland chambers of commerce meeting have had conference with Governor Pennoyer and Hon. Phil Metchan, and were informed by those gentlemen that the construction of the Cascade portage road will commence at once. The first work done will be one of the approaches so as to have them finished before high water. By the time they are finished or sooner it will be known whether the road will be built at the expense of the general nent or not. The governor and Mr. Metchan assured our delegation, however, that the road would certainly be finished and equipped inside of one

The Union Pacific rents the O. R. & N. Co. line at an annual rental, it is fore the U. S. Land Office and Secretary said, of an guarranteed six per cent on of the Interior. Persons for whom we $40,000,000. Or in other words the Union Pacific pays $240,000 yearly to the O. R. & N. Co., for the use of the road. Add to this sum the state, county, school and road taxes which the U. P. has to pay and the aggregate cannot fall far short of $400,000 and maybe more. This sum the producers of the inland empire have to pay annually into the coffers of Jay Gould, in addition to the cost of repairs running expenses and the little slice of profifs that such a modest man the taxes have not been paid. Please only requires. It follows, therefore, that no road built at such an outlay of capital can successfully compete with an

Perhaps so. But then the publishing of the document will have the tendency to show that the men who framed it are not ashamed of their record. Besides it don't cost the Times-Mountaineer anything and pleases the Chronicle. Besides too, Mr. Michell need not read it if be does not want to. In fact the Chronicle and the companion of of the document will have the tendency mmends him not to read it. No critic who wants to be in the fashion ever reads anything he criticises.

can equal the slowness of a Washington government official. "The mills of the gods grind slowly," it is said, but the * burrs would be worn out before a Washington official would fairly get started. The spring rodero for horses will meet five months ago congress passed the at Bake Oven on the first day of May. forfeiture act. Any intelligent land clerk might have formulated between two any suns the necessary instructions for the local land offices, yet for five reary months the secretary of state and the assistant secretary and the land commissioner and the assistant land commissioner and the assistant attorney-general and judge advocates and land commissioners.

The Best Cough Medicine.

"One of my customers came in today and asked for the best cough medicine I had," say Lew Young, a prominent druggist of Newman Grove, Neb. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine give $5 apiece for the recovery of the Same.

J. W. ROGERS.

Boyd, Or.

Real Estate Transactions.

Joel C. Johnson to Ellen S. Johnson. and goodness knows how many more have failed to give the local land offices the west 1/2 of the northwest 1/4 of secsuch instructions as are required to put tion 26 in township 1 north of range 15 the law into effect. It is little wonder east, 160 acres. Consideration $1.

It is said the new boat will be the He Will be at The Dalles May 7th at handsomest craft on the Columbia river. Mr. W. Foley, a Portland lawyer and a genuine "native of the soil" gave the CHRONICLE a pleasant call today.

County assessor Barnett leaves this assessing the county.

great convenience to many. of construction of the new boat.

The weather is beautifully bright and by a physician.

equities of the case.

Henry Van Asslet, late of Hood River priation for opening the Cascade Locks deed for his property in Hood River, to was a useless waste of the public funds. James Chistian Nestergard in the sum dispatches and grinding out, on its new sorrow, and heart of our heart. of $2300.

Washington at the world's fair, with Mutton sheep are selling freely at $2.75 her $100,000 appropriation, her 420 foot flagstaff and her higher hopes, will towa head and sheep men hold out for a er above Oregon like the most elevated higher price. The Baldwin Land & Live Fourth of July bunting above a pair of is in the city, we learn that Judge Bird headquarters held in The Dalles for the is expected home about the first of May, past year is now removed to Portland and hopes to be able to attend to his with O. Summers of "Geo. Wright" of the Chronicle with a beautiful Irish duties over the circuit. This will be Post No. 1, department commander.

land and Astoria Navigation Company ized and there was net increase of nearly which was authorized to let the contract | 450 members as against 238 of the preland last Friday. He informs us that known that the contract has been let flattering to Ex-Department Commandand that the boat will be finished in er James A. Varney and Ex-Department one hundred days.

Advertised Letters. C. E. Bayard brought into this office for same will please say "Advertised." Frawley & Dial Hayden, George Matheney, M O'Dell, J W Robinson Mr M White, T W (2) M. T. NOLAN, P. M.

house would indicate that the regard to the end of the new jetty, one of them disease as a punishment for sin; done if you choose to, as nature in her kindness to man gives timely warning and plainly tells you in nature's way, had let the contract to Paquett & Smith, that as a punishment for some indiscretion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by the first of August next.

I think embalmment was omitted. When it olden times they wished to embalm a dead body, the present with some pretension of medical skill would show the point between the ribs where the incision was to be made. Then the contract to Paquett & Smith, that as a punishment for some indiscretion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by the Constant Quarter Massach will have to hustle to equal perfumes it.

I think embalmment was omitted. When it olden times they wished to embalm a dead body, the present will have to hustle to equal perfumes it. proof of this capacity before being approved by the company. The boat is to charge from the nose. In severe cases built on the Columbia river at any point there is a thin white coating on the from the Cascades to The Dalles inclusive.

The Dalles induction to the Dalles induction of the Cascades to The Dalles inclusive.

The Dalles induction to the Dalles induction of the Cascades to The Dalles induction to the Cascades to The Cascades lessen the severity of the cold and in most cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced." Fifty cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists.

R. E. French has for sale a number of improved ranches and unimproved lands in the Grass Valley neighborhood in Sherman county. They will be sold very cheap and on reasonable terms.

Mr. French can locate settlers on some good unsettled claims in the same neighborhood. His address is Grass Valley, Sherman county, Oregon.

We are now ready to prepare papers for the filing and entry of Railroad Lands. We also attend to business behave prepared papers and who are required to renew their applications, will not be charged additional for such papers.

THORNBURY & HUDSON,
ROOMS 8 and 9, Land Office building,

Forfeited Railroad Lands

The Dalles, Oregon.

All state and county taxes, become delinquent April 1st, Taxpayers are here by requested to pay the same before that date in order to avoid going on the de-linquent list. The county court has ordered the sale of all property in which and save costs. D. L. Cates, Sheriff of Wasco County.

FOR SALE. A choice lot of brood mares; also a number of geldings and fillies by "Rock-wood Jr.," "Planter," "Oregon Wilkes,"

Merino Sheep for Sale. I have a fine band of thorough bred

The Dalles, Or. Horsemen Attention. R. BOOTEN CHAS. W. HAIGHT,

Joel C. Johnson to Ellen S. Johnson, it failed to give the mos perfect satisfaction." Fifty cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

pass through The Dalles going east on city tomorrow to enter on his work of Thursday, May 7th, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m. It will be in order for our All the passenger trains now stop at civic and military organizations to take the Umatilla house. It seems so nat- measures to give the party a fitting re- preached an Easter sermon to his two audiural for them to stop there and is a very ception. An effort will be made to have the party stop over a few hours to view appointed Hugh Glenn superintendent to see the only person now living who, according to Barney Goldsmith, crossed Drake in the year 1576. Or the man wont to do at this season of the year.— river on the backs of the salmon. Or tery. the man who remembers the year The druggists of this city have unani- when the river froze to the bottom, nously agreed to close their stores on and when the thaw came in less called upon for medicine prescribed months on top of the ice. Or the handsome lads of the O. N. G. and the gorgeing some trouble over the question of a handsomest set of young ladies on the private and heartfelt affection. division of the district. Superintendent | American continent. Or the signal ser-Shelly is trying to adjudicate on the vice bureau at the corner of Second and stupendous steam power Cottrell press, at the rate of see the place where the Lord lay." thirty to the minute, the best newspaper in Eastern Oregon.

The annual encampment of the G. A. R., department of Oregon has met and perous of any in the history of this de-The committee of The Dalles, Port- partment. Seven new posts were organ-Following is a list of unclaimed letters largest increase hitherto, and that they best reports of any previous year. Astoria did handsomely and nobly. At the lasted a week. As it was the proceeding didnot end till a fewminutesbefore their departure. At the parade Thursday the beautiful sight of 400 school children joined in the procession, together with five companies of O. N. G. Two govorn-The following advertisement, published ment steamers were placed at their disby a prominent western patent medicine posal and carried the happy crowd out "Do you wish to know the quickest going outside the bar. Then they were

From an Old Dalles Resident.

EAST PORTLAND, Or., April 12, 1891. EDITOR CHRONICLE.—Perhaps a few be of interest to the readers of your

First let me say I like the ring of the from the power that is sapping the life-blood from the toilers of this fair land. Let the watch-word be an "Open river of the seal of the United States governto the sea"—until that fact is fully accomplished when some of the profits of Wall street.

The all-absorbing topic in the local circles here is that of consolidation—blending three lively cities into one large city. It is a mixed quantity, good and wise men are on both sides of the question.

Argument on both sides are unactived the parameter of the line and slides down upon the parameter, moves through the portico, appears in the tion. Argument on both sides are un-answerable, what the results will be, the first Monday in June alone will tell. Our cities never prospered more than

Yours for the right, OLD DALLES. New Railroad Agent at This Station. Mr. William R. Mackenzie, traveling Mr. William R. Mackenzie, traveling auditor of the Union Pacific Co., has been in the city for the past day or two checking over the accounts of Mr. Alla
"The Lord is risen." Hosanna! Hosanna! checking over the accounts of Mr. Allaway, preparatory to the transfer to Mr. E. E. Lytle, who succeeds Mr. Allaway

There is no possible benefit to be derived in holding a post-mortem examination over the old charter bill. It has been very meritorously dead for many months, and the autopsy will not stimulate enterprise in the city or tend to stop factional fights.

There is no possible benefit to be derived in holding a post-mortem examination over the old charter bill. It has also three fine young stallions by "Rockwood Jr." out of first class mares. For prices and terms call on or address either J. W. Condon, or J. H. Larsen, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. Mackenzie says that the company is very sorry to lose the services of Mr. Allaway who has served them faithfully for many years, and regret that he has seen fit to sever the very pleasant relations existing between them.

Mr. Allaway is not going to leave our city, however, but will be associated Mr. Lytle comes well recommended having been agent for the company at Hood River and is a very pleasant little

The register and receiver of the land office received a letter this morning in-There is nothing in Heaven or earth can equal the slowness of a Washington government official. "The mills of the D. M. French, about 200 young lambs, which I will sell at a low price for feiture act to, within sixty days of the D. M. French, and upon easy terms. Address, date of such notice, come forward and the price of the pr designate the particular lands which they intend to purchase within the two dead. years allowed by the act. Notice will be published on this date.

The Best Cough Medicine.

"COME. SEE THE PLACE WHERE THE LORD LAY."

President Harrison and party will Text of the Elequent Discourse Delivered on Sunday, March 29, by the Bev. T. De Witt Talmage-Title of the

NEW YORK, March 29.-Dr. Talmage

in Brooklyn and at the Christian Herald The directors of The Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation company have some of our natural curiosities. It will be well worth a trip to the Pacific coast priate to the festival was beautifully renthe Columbia bar with Sir Francis preacher's discourse was Matthew xxviii, 6, glorious, but the air is so cool that the grass is not growing as rapidly as it is who used to walk across the Columbia fied until we have also looked at its ceme-We examine all the styles of ceno vonder an orator, here a poet, out there an Sundays from one to 5 o'clock p. m. un- the spring the water ran for three lanthropist. But with how much greater we look upon our family plot in the ceme School district No. 8 at Mosier is hav- ous apparel of the drum major. Or the lie interest, in the other it is a matter of around the grave at which we halt this morning there are gathered all kinds of vice bureau at the corner of Second and stupendous interest. At this sepulcher, I Washington foretelling correctly eighty have to tell you—in this sepulcher there times out of every hundred what the was buried a king, a conqueror, an eman-Henry Van Asslet, late of Hood River now of Seattle, has given a bond for a weather is going to be. Or the Chron- arch of the universe, but bone of our bone. ICLE staff receiving the associated press and flesh of our flesh, and sorrow of our THE MANOR OF JOSEPH.

It has for surroundings the manor in the suburbs of Jerusalem, a manor owned by a wealthy gentleman by the name of Joseph. He was one of the court of seven ty who had condemned Christ, but I think he had voted in the negative, or, being a timid man, had been absent at the time of adjourned. A new set of officers has the casting of the vote. He had laid out From R. R. Hinton of Bake Oven who been appointed and the department the parterre at great expense. It was a hot climate, and I suppose there were broad branched trees and winding paths underneath them, while here the waters rippled over the rock into a fishpool, and yonder the vines and the flowers clambered over good news to the many friends of Judge The past year has been the most pros- the wall, and all around there were the beauties of kiosk and arboriculture. After the fatigues of the Jerusalem courtroom. how refreshing to come out in thes which was authorized to let the contract for the new boat returned from Port- vious year. The order now numbers in land Saturday It is already well- this state 2300 members. It is very chisel. I come still closer and I find that there is a subterranean recess, and I walk down the marble stairs and come to a port-Quarter Master Gen. A. G. Johnson to fruits and flowers chiseled by the hand of note that during the year of their in- the sculptor. I go into the portico, and on cumbency the G. A. R. experienced the either side there are rooms, two or four or remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles were complimented by having organized body. One of these rooms of rock is especially the best open produced the Oregon, April 10, 1891. Persons calling the best encampment and produced the cially wealthy with sculpture. It was a beautiful and charming spot. Why all this? The fact was that Joseph, the owner of the parterre, of that wealthy manor, banquet on Thursday evening a pro- had recognized the fact that he could not gramme was arranged that would have always walk those gardens, and he sought this as his own last resting place. beautiful plot in which to wait for the > Mark well the mausoleum in the rock. It is to be the most celebrated tomb in all the ages: catacombs of Egypt, tomb of Napolesu, Mahal Taj of India, nothing compared with it. Christ had just been murdered, and his body must be thrown out to the dogs and the ravens, as was while you yourself will want to lie down customary with crucified bodies, unless to the last slumber. If you have no rethere be prompt and effective hindrance. for the body of Christ, and he takes and the blood and the dust, and shrouds it and perfumes it.

or before the first of August next.

The boat must have a speed of not less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles an hour and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and make the incision, and then run for his life else he would be slain for violating the dead body. Then the other priests the Universe. Let this be contained to the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and make the incision, and then run for his life else he would be slain for violating the dead body. Then the other priests the Universe than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen miles and shall give the first symptoms of a less than fifteen mil and wine of palm tree, and complete the embalmment. But I think in this case embalmment was omitted lest there be more excitement and another riot. The funeral items from this part of the world might advances. Present, Joseph, the owner of the mausoleum; Nicodemus, who brought the lowers, and the two Marys Heavy burden on the shoulders of two men as they carry the body of Christ down the marble CHRONICLE. It is on the right track- stairs and into the portion, and lift the dead and gives no uncertain sound upon ques- weight to the level of the niche in the tions that vitally concerns this country east and west. The time has fully come These men coming forth close the door of when the people of this country must rise up enmasse and liberate themselves from the power that is sapping the life-

> THE GUARD OF THE TOMB. the producer instead of going into the pockets of a few money kings on Wall street.
>
> The guard of this state will stay with A regiment of soldiers from the tower of Antonio is detailed to guard that mansoleum. At the door of that tomb a fight took place which decided the state of the state crypt begins to move in its shroud of fine linen and slides down upon the pavement, moves through the portico, appears in the doorway, comes up the marble steps. Christ, having left his mortuary attire behind him, comes forth in the garb of a Our cities never prospered more than they do now as we are—will they do better when united—who can till? If so, unite—if not, better remain as we are.
>
> Yours for the right, trowels of earthly masonry cannot mend it. Forever and forever it is a broken tomb. Death that day taking the side of the military received a horrible cut under

> > When one of the old Christians was dying he said he saw on the sky the letter "V," and he said, "I cannot understand what that is I see against the sky; it is the letter 'V.'" A Christian standing beside him said, "I know what it means; that letter 'V' stands for 'victory.'" I gather up all these flowers today and I strew them over the graves of your Christian dead in the letter "V" for "victory." "R" for "resurrection," "T" for "triumph." "H" for "heaven." "The Lord is risen." Ho the Lord lay I am impressed with the fact wrongs to the living. If they could have they could have afforded him a decent earthly residence. Will they give a plece of marble to the dead Christ when they might have given a soft pillow to the living Christ? If they had put half the expense of that mausoleum in the making of Christ's life on earth comfortable the forfeiture act to, within sixty days of the story would not have been so sad. He date of such notice, come forward and wanted bread; they gave him a stone. Christ, like every other benefactor of the world, was better appreciated after he was dead. Westminster Abbey and monumental Greenwood are to a certain extent the world's attempts by mortuary honors to atone for neglects to the living. Poets' Corner in Westminster Abbey is an attempt to pay for the sufferings of Grub street. I go into that Poets' Corner of Westminster Abbey and there I find the grave of Handel, the musician from whose sic we hear today as it goes down reverberating through the ages. While I stand at the costly tomb of Handel I cannot forget the fact that his fellow musicians tried to destroy him with their discords. I go a little farther in the Poets' Corner of Westminster Abbey and I find the grave of John Dryden, the great nost. Costly monagement great nost. great poet. Costly monument, great mor-tuary honors, but I cannot forget the fact that at seventy years of age he wrote about the oppressions of misfortune, and that he pelice a line. I go a little farther in the ets' Corner and I find the grave of Samuel Butler, the author of "Hudibras. Wonderful monument, costly mortnary bonors. Where did he die? In a garret farther on in the Poets' and I find the grave of a poet of whom Waller wrote: "An old schoolmaster by the name of John Milton has written tedious volume on the fall of man. If it's length be no virtue it has none." I go a little farther on in the Poets' Corner and I find the grave of Sheridan. Alas! for Sheridan.

Poor Sheridan! Magnificent mortuary honors. What a pity it was he could not have discounted that monument for a mouthful of something to eat! Oh, unfilial children, give your old parents less tombstones and more blankets, less funeral and more bedroom! Five per cent, of the money now expended at Burns' banquets would have made the great Scotch poet comfort able and kept him from being almost har ried to death by the drudgery of an excise while he lived-going out to his tomb was followed by the president of the United States and the leading men of the army and the navy. Some people could not say bitter enough things about him while he lived; all the world rose up to do him honor when he died. Massachusetts at the tombof Charles Sumner tried to atone for the igominious resolutions with which he legislature denounced the living senator. It was too late. The costly monument as Springfield, Ills., cannot pay for Booth's Costly mortuary honors on the banks of Lake Erie—honors that cost be-tween $200,000 and $300,000—cannot pay for the assassination of James A. Garfield. Do justice to the living. All the justice you do you will have to do this side the gates of the necropolis. The dead cannot wake up to count the number of carriages in the procession or see the polish on the Aberdeen granite or to read the words of epitaphal commemoration. Costly mauso-leum of the gentleman in the suburbs of anot atone for Bethlehem's manger and Calvarean cross and Pilate's APPROPRIATE ORNAMENTS FOR TOMBS. Again! Standing in this place where the Lord lay I am impressed with the fact that floral and sculptural ornamentation are appropriate for the places of the dead. the Saviour's inhumation he lay amid flowers and sculpture. I cannot quite understand what I see in the newspapers where, amid the announcements and obsequies, the friends request "send no flow-ers." Why, there is no place so appropriate for flowers as the casket of the departed. If your means allow-I repeat, if the casket, flowers on the hearse, flowers on the grave. Put them on the brow; it nation. Put them in the hand; it means victory. Christ was buried in a parterre. Christ was buried in a garden Flowers are types of resurrection. Death is sad enough anyhow. Let conservatory and arboretum do all they can in the way of alleviation. Your little girl loved flowers while she was alive. Put them in her hands, now that she cannot go forth and plack flowers for herself. On sunshiny days twist a garland for her still heart. Brooklyn has no grander glory than her Greenwood, nor Boston than her Mount Auburn, nor Philadelphia than her Laurel Hill, nor Cincinnati than her Spring Grove, nor San Francisco than her Lone Moun-What shall I say of those country gravevards where the vines have faller down and the slab is aslant and the mound s caved in and the grass is the pasture ground for the sexton's cattle. Are you father and mother of so little accoun have no more respect than that for their bones? Some day gather together and straighten up the fence and lift the slab and bank up the mound and tear out the weeds and plant the shrubs. After a bones. Do you say these relics are of no importance? You will see of how much portance they are when the archangel takes out his trumpet. Turn all your FOUR ONLY PRESENT AT THE BURIAL. Standing in this place where the Lord of unpretending obsequies. Joseph that day was mourner, sexton, liveryman-had people only at the burial of the King of those who, through small means or lack of cession large acquair stration of grief at the grave of their dead. It is not necessary. Long line of glittering equipages, two rows of silver handles, cas-ket of costly wood, pall bearers scarfed and gloved are not necessary.

Christ looks out from heaven at a burial where there are six in attendance, and remembers there are two more than he had at his obsequies. Not recognizing this idea, how many small properties are scattered in the funeral rites, and widowhood and orphanage go out to the cold charity of the world. The departed left enough property to have kept the family together until they could take care of themselves, but it is all absorbed in the funeral rites. That went bread. A man of small means can hardly afford to die in one of our great cities Funeral pageantry is not necessary. No one was ever more lovingly and tenderly were only four in the procession. inding in this place put into the grave than Christ, but there crypt. Come out and come up he must. Came out and came up he did. Prefiguration. The first fruits of them that sieep. Just as certain as you and I go down into the surface.

not what they used to be to us, for now, walking around the spot where the Lord lay, we find vines and flowers covering up the tomb, and that which we called a place of skulls has become a beautiful garder Yes, now there are four gardens instead of one-Garden of Eden, Garden of the World's Sepulcher, Garden of Earth's Re-generation, Garden of Heaven.

will be a sound from beaven such as has very loud, but it will be penetrating. There are mausoleums so deep that undisturbed silence has slept there ever since the day when the sleepers were left in them. The great noise shall strike through them. Among the corals of the sea, miles deep, where the shipwrecked rest, the sound will strike. No one will mistake it for thu or the blast of earthly minstrelsy. There will be heard the voice of the uncount millions of the dead, who come rushing out of the gates of eternity, flying toward in corruption; surrender it now in incor-Thousands of spirits arising ruption." Thousands of spirits arising from the field of Sedan, and from among the rocks of Gettysburg, and from among the passes of South Mountain. A hundred this grave three spirits meet, for there were three bodies in that tomb! Over that fam-

From New York to Liverpool, at every few miles on the sea route, a group of hundreds of spirits coming down to the water to meet their bodies. See that multitude! shows that there is a vast growth of That is where the Central America sank. marine algae at the great depth of 2,000 And yonder multitude! That is where the Pacific went down. Found at last! That is where the City of Boston sank. And yonder the President went down. A solitary spirit alights on yonder prairie. That is where a traveler perished in the snow. The whole air is full of spirits—spirits fly ing north, spirits flying south, spirits fly-ing east, spirits flying west. Crash! goes Westminster abbey as all its dead kings and orators and poets get up.

of Egypt rise out of the heart of the desert. Snap! go the iron gates of the modern vaults. The country graveyard will look like a rough plowed field as the mounds break open. All the kings of the earth all the senators; all the great men; all the beggars; all the armies-victors and van-quished; all the ages-barbaric and civilzed; all those who were chopped by guillotine or simmered in the fire or rotted in dungeons; all the infants of a day; all the octogenarians-all! all! Not one straggler

And now the air is darkened with the fragments of bodies that are coming together from the opposite corners of the earth. Lost limbs finding their mateoone to bone, sinew to sinew-until every joint is reconstructed, and every arm finds ts socket, and the amputated limb of the surgeon's table shall be set again at the point from which it was severed. A suron told me that after the battle of Bull Run he amputated limbs, throwing then out of the window, until the pile read up to the window sill. All those frag ments will have to take their Those who were born blind shall have eyes divinely kindled; those who were lame shall have a limb substituted. In all the hosts of the resurrected not one eye missing, not one foot clogged, not one arm palsied, not one tongue dumb, not one ear deaf. PEACE TOWARD HEAVEN AND EARTH.

Wake up, my friends, this day, this glorious Easter morning, with all these congratulations. If I understand this day, it means peace toward heaven and peace toward earth. Great wealth of flowers! Bring more flowers. Wreath them around the brazen throat of the cannon, plant them in the deserts until it shall bl like the rose, braid them into the mane of the war charger as he comes back. No more red dahlias of human blood. Give us with Easter garlands, for the resurrection we celebrate this morning implies all kinds Resurrection from death and sin to the life of the gospel. Resurrection of apos-tolic faith. Resurrection of commercial integrity. Resurrection of national honor. urrection of international goodwill. Resurrection of art. Resurrection of literature. Resurrection of everything that is good and kind and generous and just and holy and beautiful. Nothing to stay down, to stay buried, but sin and darkness and pain and disease and revenge and death. Let those tarry in the grave forever. "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will to men."

Christ, the Lord, is risen today. Sons of men and angels say. Raise your songs and triumphs high, Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply. Love's redeeming work is done, Fought the fight, the battle won. Lo! the sun's eclipse is o'er; Lo! he sets in blood no more.

murderous melodrama held the boards at Jacobs' theatre last week. There was a sprinkling of comedy, however, through the third act on Saturday evening that set the audience agog. The hero of the play had just described boys had been down at the blacksmith's 'shoeing" geese. He cracked a weak are satisfied that joke in explaining how the geese gath ered round a pool of water near the old forge, and how the boys amused them selves by shaking their hats at them shouting "Shoo, shoof" The gallery hove caught on at once, and every time the villain unfolded one of his horrible plots on the lives of the hero and heroine the "gods" completely drowned him out

It was at a very serious situation in the performance. The life of an unprotected young heiress was about to be taken by the unscrupulous scoundrel. The sea rolled heavily and the storm raged fiercely; while the desperate deed awaited execution. "Ha! she comes; she'll never see him again!" He was Or within arm's reach of her now. He held a bloody knife in his right hand. In a moment he would plunge it into he body, but in the weirdest and most hair standing tones from among the "angels"

The awful scene was broken. The villain jumped three feet in the air and forgot his lines. The heroine forgot herself, and looked her wouldbe murderer straight in the face with horror at the straight in the face with horror at the thought of a breakdown, but of course didn't see him. Whether by an act of providence, to save the villain from his nervous plight, or through the effect of inclement weather on the electric wires. every light in the house went out instantly. Affairs were righted after a time.-New York Telegram.

A park policeman remarked recently that the winter has had no effect on the pet enemy of his comfort. "The howling wind and the falling snow," he said, "have no terrors for the venture small boy. He is out here in all kinds School Books, Lord lay, I am impressed with the fact that of ice begins to form on the lakes he you cannot keep the dead down. The seal wants to test it. He races across the of the Sanhedrim, a regiment of soldiers lawns, climbs trees and is up to no end from the tower or Antonio to stand guard, of mischief all day long. Of course we floor of rock, roof of rock, wall of rock, are constantly on the lookout to prevent niche of rock cannot keep Christ in the the boys from doing harm and from coming to grief through their pranks, but they are active and fleet of foot, and can usually get away from us. They are like locusts. They swarm all over again. Though you pile up on the top of the park at once and invent mischief as us all the bowlders of the mountains you easily as they breathe. The other day a cannot keep us down. Though we be little chap who had been wandering buried under the coral of the deepest caver of the Atlantic ocean we will rise to erie and handed a baseball bat to Tip, the elephant. Tip took a fancy to it, and his keeper was nearly three hours get LARGEST : AND : FINEST : HOTEL : IN : OREGON. ting it away from him. He narrowly

Miss Kate Drexel will endow with $8,000,000 the new religious order she is founding, to be called "The Sisters of the Most Holy Sacrament," whose work Various scriptural accounts say that the tion of Indians and negroes. She herwork of grave breaking will begin with the blast of trumpets and shoutings; whence I self will be domiciled in the order, living take it that the first intimation of the day like the humblest sister, with no exempwhence I self will be domiciled in the order, living tions from the hardship of her lot, never before been heard. It may not be so though she will probably become mother

> The largest olive oil factory in the world will soon be built at Los Guilicos. in Sonoma county, Cal. The plant will cost a quarter of a million. The company has sixty acres of 6-year-old trees, and is planting 700 acres.

just been put in working order in the St. Jacques tower in Paris. It is 12.65 megive us back our body! We gave it to you ters high, was manufactured in St. Denis and was carried by six men to Paris in a strong wooden frame. Aubery Boucicault, son of Dion Bou cicault, who is just about to be married. has written a new play expressly for his mother, in which Mrs. Boucicault will ily vault twenty spirits hover, for there appear with her daughter Nina and the author. A study of the sex bottom, currents

> The Princess of Wales has given or ders that nothing need be submitted for her inspection or that of her daughters in which birds are used as trimming

Jean Ingelow is sixty, but her cheeks are as rosy and round as a girl's. She writes but little now, and lives in an old stone house in Kensington, England.

H. Herbring

FANCY GOODS AND NOTIONS.

CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS.

Boots and Shoes etc. PRICES LOW AND CASH ONLY.

FISH & BARDON. DEALERSIN

Furnaces,

We are the Sole Agents for the Celebrated

Triumph Range and Ramona Cook Stove.

white lilies of peace. Strew all the earth Which have no equals, and Warranted to give Entire Satisfaction or Money Refunded Corner Second and Washington Streets. The Dalles, Oregon.

D. W. EDWARDS,

Paints, Oils, Glass, Wall Papers, Decorations, Artists' Materials, Oil Paintings, Chromos and Steel Engravings. Mouldings and Picture Frames, Cornice Poles Etc., Paper Trimmed Free.

Picture Frames Made to Order

NORTH * DALLES. * Wash.

In the last two weeks large sales of lots have been made at Portland, Tacoma, Forest to the soubrette how himself and the Grove, McMinnville and The Dalles. All Boot and Shoe

NORTH DALLES

Is now the place for investment. New Manufactories are to be added and large improvements made. The next 90 days will be important ones for this new city:

Call at the office of the New Railroad Interstate Investment Co... 72 Washington St., PORTLAND, Or. O. D. TAYLOR, THE DALLES, Or.

JOLES BROS. --: DEALERS IN

Hay, Grain and Feed. No. 122 Cor. Washington and Third. Sts.

I. C. NICKELSEN,

-DEALER IN-

Organs, Pianos, Watches, Jewelry.

The New

Furniture M'fy

Fine Cottages

Wire Works

Cor. of Third and Washington Sts, The Dalles, Oregon.

New - Umatilla- House,

Ticket and Baggage Office of the O. R. & N. Company, and office of the Western HANDLEY & SINNOTT, PROP'S.

Union Telegraph Office are in the Hotel, Fire-Proof Safe for the Safety of all Valuables.

CHAS. STUBLING.

GERMANIA. New Vogt Block, Second Street

WHOLESALE and RETAIL LIQUOR DEALER.

Milwaukee Beer on Draught.

Crandall & Burget,

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN

FURNITURE & CARPETS.

Undertakers and Embalmers.

NO. 166 SECOND STREET.